A Leap-Year Whist Party at Empo-EMPORIA, VA., March 21 .- (Special.)-

One of the most enjoyable affairs that has taken place here in quite awhile was a "leap-year" whist party, given by Miss Mamie Jones at the Central Hotel last night. The gentlemen, with their escorts (the usual order of things being reversed), began to arrive at about 9 o'clock, and (the usual order of things being reversed), began to arrive at about 9 o'clock, and claying began promptly at 9:30. Five Land, Lillie Land, Bettie Mayes, Mary tables were running, and at times the when the last hand was played, and the prizes were to be awarded, it was found that Miss Mamie Jones had won the first lady's prize, and Mr. S. D. Good-wyn the first gentleman's prize, while Mr. Harley Duane was the happy re-cipient of the consolation.

A North Carolina Murderer Arrested After a Year's Freedom. SCOTLAND NECK, N. C., March 21.-

(Special.)—On March 21, 1895, Moses Pen-der, a colored laborer in Edgecombe, struck and killed Overseer Joseph Ruffin, a white man, who was managing a number of hands in the field. Pender escaped, and evaded arrest until last night. The Governor offered $100 reward for his capture. Last night Mr. C. W. Dunn, Chief the of Police of Scotland Neck, assisted by

Mir. Herbert Johnson, caught Pender near Tillery, in this county, brought him here, and lodged him in jail. The prisoner was interviewed by your correspondent this morning. He says he has been working around Tillery in the shingle swamps under the assumed name of Richard Mayo. He confessed as soon as he was arrested that he killed Ruffin. He says Ruffin had a knife drawn on him, and he knew he was going to cut him. He struck Ruffin with a stick, with which he was beating down cotton-stalks. He did not think he had hurt Ruffin until he saw blood run from his ears. The prisoner is 46 years old, and is of When asked if he had a
